

I oppose this petition because it does not represent a realistic view for the continued success of amateur radio. The continuation of morse code presents a no longer relevant barrier in obtaining a license as a amateur radio operator.